1 2 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA 3 4 5 USA 6 Plaintiff(s), No. CR-05-0193 PJH 7 ORDER FOR PRETRIAL ٧. 8 CRIMINAL JURY TRIAL Montoya 9 Defendant(s). 10 11 Good cause appearing, it is hereby ordered that: 12 1. TRIAL DATE 13 a. Jury trial will begin on June 27, 2005, at 8:30 a.m., in Courtroom 3, 17th 14 Floor, 450 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, California. 15 b. The length of trial will not be more than 4 days. 16 2. DISCOVERY 17 Both sides shall comply with the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, and the 18 United States shall comply with Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963) and United States v. 19 Agurs, 427 U.S. 97 (1976). 20 3. PRETRIAL CONFERENCE 21 a. A pretrial conference will be held on June 22, 2005, at 1:30 p.m., in 22 Courtroom 3, 17th Floor. The attorneys who will try the case shall attend the conference and be 23 prepared to discuss the matters set forth in Criminal Local Rule 17.1-1. 24 b. Counsel shall comply with Crim. L. R. 17.1-1(b) including filing pretrial 25 statements by June 16, 2005. 26 Motions in limine shall be filed by June 16, 2005 and noticed for hearing C. 27 at the conference. 28

- d. Responses to motions in limine and any objections to proposed evidence shall be filed by June 20, 2005. No replies are permitted unless requested by the court.
- e. The attached juror questionnaire will be given to the venire members and copies of the responses will be made available to counsel at the beginning of voir dire. A list of additional questions to be asked by the Court is attached. Counsel shall submit an agreed upon set of any additional voir dire questions to be posed by the Court. Any voir dire questions on which counsel cannot agree may be submitted separately. Counsel will be allowed brief follow-up voir dire after the Court's questioning. Proposed voir dire questions must be submitted by June 16, 2005.
- f. Jury instructions 1.1 through 1.12, 2.1 through 2.2, 3.1 through 3.9, and 7.1 through 7.6 from the Manual of Model Criminal Jury Instructions for the Ninth Circuit (2000 Edition) will be given absent objection. Counsel shall submit an agreed upon set of case specific instructions, using the Ninth Circuit Manual where possible. Any instructions on which counsel cannot agree may be submitted separately. Each requested instruction shall be typed in full on a separate page with citations to the authority upon which it is based and a reference to the party submitting it. A second blind copy of each instruction shall also be submitted omitting the citation to authority and the reference to the submitting party.
- g. A proposed form of verdict omitting reference to the submitting party shall be filed by each party. Proposed instructions and verdict forms must be submitted by June 16, 2005.
- h. Jury Selection shall proceed as follows: The Jury Commissioner will summon 35 to 40 prospective jurors. The Courtroom Deputy will select their names at random and seat them in the courtroom in the order in which their names are called. Voir dire will be conducted of sufficient venire members so that twelve (plus a sufficient number for alternates) will remain after all peremptory challenges and an anticipated number of hardship dismissals and cause challenges have been made.

The court will then take cause challenges and discuss hardship claims (which were not previously granted) at side bar. The court will inform counsel which hardship claims and cause challenges will be granted, but will not announce those dismissals until the selection process is completed. Peremptory challenges will be made in writing and passed between counsel in accordance with Crim. L. R. 24-2 and 24-3. The court will strike at one time those with meritorious hardship claims, those excused for cause, and those challenged peremptorily, and then seat the first twelve people (plus alternates) remaining in numerical order. i. Courtesy copies of all documents shall be delivered to chambers at the time of filing. IT IS SO ORDERED. Dated: June 9, 2005 United States District Judge describe your main occupation when you were working). Who is (or was) your employer? How long have you worked for this employer? If you are married, what is your spouse's occupation? If you have children, what are their ages and sex and, if they are employed, what are their occupations? Please describe your educational background. Have you ever had jury experience? Number of times? Was it in State Court or Federal Court? When? Was it a civil or criminal case? Did any of the juries reach a verdict? Have you worked as a law enforcement officer or had close friends or relatives who have? If yes, how often do you see him or her? Do you discuss his or her work? Would the relationship cause you to have difficulties being a fair juror? Would youfind the testimony of a police officer more or less believable than that of another witness because of his or her occupation? Have you served in the military? If yes, did you serve in the military police or on court martials? Have you, or a close friend or relative, been the victim of or a witness to a crime? If requested would the defendant's race make it difficult for you to be a fair juror? Do you understand the principles that a defendant in a criminal case is presumed to be

1. Do you know any of the parties or attorneys in this case? 1. The witnesses are expected to be: [read list]. Do you know any of these people? 3. Where do you live? How long have you lived there? 4. Do you rent or own your own home? 5. What was your place of birth? 6. What is your marital status? 7. What is your occupation, and how long have you worked in it? (If you are retired, please describe your main occupation when you were working). 8. Who is (or was) your employer? 9. How long have you worked for this employer? 10. If you are married, what is your spouse's occupation? 11. If you have children, what are their ages and sex and, if they are employed, what are their occupations? 12. Please describe your educational background. 13. Have you ever had jury experience? Number of times? Was it in State Court or Federal Court? When? Was it a civil or criminal case? Did any of the juries reach a verdict? 14. Have you worked as a law enforcement officer or had close friends or relatives who have? if yes, how often do you see him or her? Do you discuss his or her work? Would the relationship cause you to have difficulties being a fair juror? 15. Would youfind the testimony of a police officer more or less believable than that of another witness because of his or her occupation? 16. Have you served in the military? If yes, did you serve in the military police or on court martials? 17. Have you, or a close friend or relative, been the victim of or a witness to a crime? 18. [If requested] Would the defendant's race make it difficult for you to be a fair juror? 19. Do you understand the principles that a defendant in a criminal case is presumed to be innocent unless proven guilty and that the burden of proof is upon the government to prove guilt beyond a reasonable doubt before there can be a conviction? 20. Do you disagree with those principles?	1		CRIMINAL VOIR DIRE
 Do you know any of the parties or attorneys in this case? The witnesses are expected to be: [read list]. Do you know any of these people? Where do you live? How long have you lived there? Do you rent or own your own home? What was your place of birth? What is your marital status? What is your cocupation, and how long have you worked in it? (If you are retired, please describe your main occupation when you were working). Who is (or was) your employer? How long have you worked for this employer? If you are married, what is your spouse's occupation? If you are married, what are their ages and sex and, if they are employed, what are their occupations? Please describe your educational background. Have you ever had jury experience? Number of times? Was it in State Court or Federal Court? When? Was it a civil or criminal case? Did any of the juries reach a verdict? Have you worked as a law enforcement officer or had close friends or relatives who have? If yes, how often do you see him or her? Do you discuss his or her work? Would the relationship cause you to have difficulties being a fair juror? Would youfind the testimony of a police officer more or less believable than that of another witness because of his or her occupation? Have you served in the military? If yes, did you serve in the military police or on court martials? Have you, or a close friend or relative, been the victim of or a witness to a crime? Have you, or a close friend or relative, been the victim of or a witness to a crime? Do you understand the principles that a defendant in a criminal case is presumed to be innocent unless proven guilty and that the burden of proof is upon the government to prove guilt beyond a reasonable doubt before there can be a conviction? Do you disagree with those pri	2
2. The witnesses are expected to be: [read list]. Do you know any of these people? 3. Where do you live? How long have you lived there? 4. Do you rent or own your own home? 5. What was your place of birth? 6. What is your cocupation, and how long have you worked in it? (If you are retired, please describe your main occupation when you were working). 8. Who is (or was) your employer? 9. How long have you worked for this employer? 10. If you are married, what is your spouse's occupation? 11. If you have children, what are their ages and sex and, if they are employed, what are their occupations? 12. Please describe your educational background. 13. Have you ever had jury experience? Number of times? Was it in State Court or Federal Court? When? Was it a civil or criminal case? Did any of the juries reach a verdict? 14. Have you worked as a law enforcement officer or had close friends or relatives who have? If yes, how often do you see him or her? Do you discuss his or her work? Would the relationship cause you to have difficulties being a fair juror? 15. Would youfind the testimony of a police officer more or less believable than that of another witness because of his or her occupation? 16. Have you served in the military? If yes, did you serve in the military police or on court martials? 17. Have you, or a close friend or relative, been the victim of or a witness to a crime? 18. [If requested] Would the defendant's race make it difficult for you to be a fair juror? 19. Do you understand the principles that a defendant in a criminal case is presumed to be innocent unless proven guilty and that the burden of proof is upon the government to prove guilt beyond a reasonable doubt before there can be a conviction? 20. Do you disagree with those principles?	3
3. Where do you live? How long have you lived there? 4. Do you rent or own your own home? 5. What was your place of birth? 6. What is your occupation, and how long have you worked in it? (If you are retired, please describe your main occupation when you were working). 8. Who is (or was) your employer? 9. How long have you worked for this employer? 10. If you are married, what is your spouse's occupation? 11. If you have children, what are their ages and sex and, if they are employed, what are their occupations? 12. Please describe your educational background. 13. Have you ever had jury experience? Number of times? Was it in State Court or Federal Court? When? Was it a civil or criminal case? Did any of the juries reach a verdict? 14. Have you worked as a law enforcement officer or had close friends or relatives who have? If yes, how often do you see him or her? Do you discuss his or her work? Would the relationship cause you to have difficulties being a fair juror? 15. Would youfind the testimony of a police officer more or less believable than that of another witness because of his or her occupation? 16. Have you served in the military? If yes, did you serve in the military police or on court martials? 17. Have you, or a close friend or relative, been the victim of or a witness to a crime? 18. [If requested] Would the defendant's race make it difficult for you to be a fair juror? 19. Do you understand the principles that a defendant in a criminal case is presumed to be innocent unless proven guilty and that the burden of proof is upon the government to prove guilt beyond a reasonable doubt before there can be a conviction? 20. Do you disagree with those principles?	4	1.	Do you know any of the parties or attorneys in this case?
4. Do you rent or own your own home? 5. What was your place of birth? 6. What is your marital status? 7. What is your occupation, and how long have you worked in it? (If you are retired, please describe your main occupation when you were working). 8. Who is (or was) your employer? 9. How long have you worked for this employer? 10. If you are married, what is your spouse's occupation? 11. If you have children, what are their ages and sex and, if they are employed, what are their occupations? 12. Please describe your educational background. 13. Have you ever had jury experience? Number of times? Was it in State Court or Federal Court? When? Was it a civil or criminal case? Did any of the juries reach a verdict? 14. Have you worked as a law enforcement officer or had close friends or relatives who have? If yes, how often do you see him or her? Do you discuss his or her work? Would the relationship cause you to have difficulties being a fair juror? 15. Would youfind the testimony of a police officer more or less believable than that of another witness because of his or her occupation? 16. Have you served in the military? If yes, did you serve in the military police or on court martials? 17. Have you, or a close friend or relative, been the victim of or a witness to a crime? 18. [If requested] Would the defendant's race make it difficult for you to be a fair juror? 19. Do you understand the principles that a defendant in a criminal case is presumed to be innocent unless proven guilty and that the burden of proof is upon the government to prove guilt beyond a reasonable doubt before there can be a conviction? 20. Do you disagree with those principles?	5	2.	The witnesses are expected to be: [read list]. Do you know any of these people?
 What was your place of birth? What is your occupation, and how long have you worked in it? (If you are retired, please describe your main occupation when you were working). Who is (or was) your employer? How long have you worked for this employer? If you are married, what is your spouse's occupation? If you have children, what are their ages and sex and, if they are employed, what are their occupations? Please describe your educational background. Have you ever had jury experience? Number of times? Was it in State Court or Federal Court? When? Was it a civil or criminal case? Did any of the juries reach a verdict? Have you worked as a law enforcement officer or had close friends or relatives who have? If yes, how often do you see him or her? Do you discuss his or her work? Would the relationship cause you to have difficulties being a fair juror? Would youfind the testimony of a police officer more or less believable than that of another witness because of his or her occupation? Have you served in the military? If yes, did you serve in the military police or on court martials? Have you, or a close friend or relative, been the victim of or a witness to a crime? Have you understand the principles that a defendant in a criminal case is presumed to be innocent unless proven guilty and that the burden of proof is upon the government to prove guilt beyond a reasonable doubt before there can be a conviction? Do you disagree with those principles? 	6	3.	Where do you live? How long have you lived there?
9 6. What is your marital status? 7. What is your occupation, and how long have you worked in it? (If you are retired, please describe your main occupation when you were working). 8. Who is (or was) your employer? 9. How long have you worked for this employer? 10. If you are married, what is your spouse's occupation? 11. If you have children, what are their ages and sex and, if they are employed, what are their occupations? 12. Please describe your educational background. 13. Have you ever had jury experience? Number of times? Was it in State Court or Federal Court? When? Was it a civil or criminal case? Did any of the juries reach a verdict? 14. Have you worked as a law enforcement officer or had close friends or relatives who have? If yes, how often do you see him or her? Do you discuss his or her work? Would the relationship cause you to have difficulties being a fair juror? 15. Would youfind the testimony of a police officer more or less believable than that of another witness because of his or her occupation? 16. Have you served in the military? If yes, did you serve in the military police or on court martials? 17. Have you, or a close friend or relative, been the victim of or a witness to a crime? 18. [If requested] Would the defendant's race make it difficult for you to be a fair juror? 19. Do you understand the principles that a defendant in a criminal case is presumed to be innocent unless proven guilty and that the burden of proof is upon the government to prove guilt beyond a reasonable doubt before there can be a conviction? 20. Do you disagree with those principles?	7	4.	Do you rent or own your own home?
7. What is your occupation, and how long have you worked in it? (If you are retired, please describe your main occupation when you were working). 8. Who is (or was) your employer? 9. How long have you worked for this employer? 10. If you are married, what is your spouse's occupation? 11. If you have children, what are their ages and sex and, if they are employed, what are their occupations? 12. Please describe your educational background. 13. Have you ever had jury experience? Number of times? Was it in State Court or Federal Court? When? Was it a civil or criminal case? Did any of the juries reach a verdict? 14. Have you worked as a law enforcement officer or had close friends or relatives who have? If yes, how often do you see him or her? Do you discuss his or her work? Would the relationship cause you to have difficulties being a fair juror? 15. Would youfind the testimony of a police officer more or less believable than that of another witness because of his or her occupation? 16. Have you served in the military? If yes, did you serve in the military police or on court martials? 17. Have you, or a close friend or relative, been the victim of or a witness to a crime? 18. [If requested] Would the defendant's race make it difficult for you to be a fair juror? 19. Do you understand the principles that a defendant in a criminal case is presumed to be innocent unless proven guilty and that the burden of proof is upon the government to prove guilt beyond a reasonable doubt before there can be a conviction?	8	5.	What was your place of birth?
describé your main occupation when you were working). Who is (or was) your employer? How long have you worked for this employer? If you are married, what is your spouse's occupation? If you have children, what are their ages and sex and, if they are employed, what are their occupations? Please describe your educational background. Have you ever had jury experience? Number of times? Was it in State Court or Federal Court? When? Was it a civil or criminal case? Did any of the juries reach a verdict? Have you worked as a law enforcement officer or had close friends or relatives who have? If yes, how often do you see him or her? Do you discuss his or her work? Would the relationship cause you to have difficulties being a fair juror? Would youfind the testimony of a police officer more or less believable than that of another witness because of his or her occupation? Have you served in the military? If yes, did you serve in the military police or on court martials? Have you, or a close friend or relative, been the victim of or a witness to a crime? If requested] Would the defendant's race make it difficult for you to be a fair juror? Do you understand the principles that a defendant in a criminal case is presumed to be innocent unless proven guilty and that the burden of proof is upon the government to prove guilt beyond a reasonable doubt before there can be a conviction?	9	6.	What is your marital status?
8. Who is (or was) your employer? 9. How long have you worked for this employer? 10. If you are married, what is your spouse's occupation? 11. If you have children, what are their ages and sex and, if they are employed, what are their occupations? 12. Please describe your educational background. 13. Have you ever had jury experience? Number of times? Was it in State Court or Federal Court? When? Was it a civil or criminal case? Did any of the juries reach a verdict? 14. Have you worked as a law enforcement officer or had close friends or relatives who have? If yes, how often do you see him or her? Do you discuss his or her work? Would the relationship cause you to have difficulties being a fair juror? 15. Would youfind the testimony of a police officer more or less believable than that of another witness because of his or her occupation? 16. Have you served in the military? If yes, did you serve in the military police or on court martials? 17. Have you, or a close friend or relative, been the victim of or a witness to a crime? 18. [If requested] Would the defendant's race make it difficult for you to be a fair juror? 19. Do you understand the principles that a defendant in a criminal case is presumed to be innocent unless proven guilty and that the burden of proof is upon the government to prove guilt beyond a reasonable doubt before there can be a conviction? 20. Do you disagree with those principles?		7.	What is your occupation, and how long have you worked in it? (If you are retired, please describe your main occupation when you were working).
9. How long have you worked for this employer? 10. If you are married, what is your spouse's occupation? 11. If you have children, what are their ages and sex and, if they are employed, what are their occupations? 12. Please describe your educational background. 13. Have you ever had jury experience? Number of times? Was it in State Court or Federal Court? When? Was it a civil or criminal case? Did any of the juries reach a verdict? 14. Have you worked as a law enforcement officer or had close friends or relatives who have? If yes, how often do you see him or her? Do you discuss his or her work? Would the relationship cause you to have difficulties being a fair juror? 15. Would youfind the testimony of a police officer more or less believable than that of another witness because of his or her occupation? 16. Have you served in the military? If yes, did you serve in the military police or on court martials? 17. Have you, or a close friend or relative, been the victim of or a witness to a crime? 18. [If requested] Would the defendant's race make it difficult for you to be a fair juror? 19. Do you understand the principles that a defendant in a criminal case is presumed to be innocent unless proven guilty and that the burden of proof is upon the government to prove guilt beyond a reasonable doubt before there can be a conviction? 20. Do you disagree with those principles?		8.	Who is (or was) your employer?
10. If you are married, what is your spouse's occupation? 11. If you have children, what are their ages and sex and, if they are employed, what are their occupations? 12. Please describe your educational background. 13. Have you ever had jury experience? Number of times? Was it in State Court or Federal Court? When? Was it a civil or criminal case? Did any of the juries reach a verdict? 14. Have you worked as a law enforcement officer or had close friends or relatives who have? If yes, how often do you see him or her? Do you discuss his or her work? Would the relationship cause you to have difficulties being a fair juror? 15. Would youfind the testimony of a police officer more or less believable than that of another witness because of his or her occupation? 16. Have you served in the military? If yes, did you serve in the military police or on court martials? 17. Have you, or a close friend or relative, been the victim of or a witness to a crime? 18. [If requested] Would the defendant's race make it difficult for you to be a fair juror? 19. Do you understand the principles that a defendant in a criminal case is presumed to be innocent unless proven guilty and that the burden of proof is upon the government to prove guilt beyond a reasonable doubt before there can be a conviction? 20. Do you disagree with those principles?		9.	How long have you worked for this employer?
11. If you have children, what are their ages and sex and, if they are employed, what are their occupations? 12. Please describe your educational background. 13. Have you ever had jury experience? Number of times? Was it in State Court or Federal Court? When? Was it a civil or criminal case? Did any of the juries reach a verdict? 14. Have you worked as a law enforcement officer or had close friends or relatives who have? If yes, how often do you see him or her? Do you discuss his or her work? Would the relationship cause you to have difficulties being a fair juror? 15. Would youfind the testimony of a police officer more or less believable than that of another witness because of his or her occupation? 16. Have you served in the military? If yes, did you serve in the military police or on court martials? 17. Have you, or a close friend or relative, been the victim of or a witness to a crime? 18. [If requested] Would the defendant's race make it difficult for you to be a fair juror? 19. Do you understand the principles that a defendant in a criminal case is presumed to be innocent unless proven guilty and that the burden of proof is upon the government to prove guilt beyond a reasonable doubt before there can be a conviction? 20. Do you disagree with those principles?		10.	If you are married, what is your spouse's occupation?
13. Have you ever had jury experience? Number of times? Was it in State Court or Federal Court? When? Was it a civil or criminal case? Did any of the juries reach a verdict? 14. Have you worked as a law enforcement officer or had close friends or relatives who have? If yes, how often do you see him or her? Do you discuss his or her work? Would the relationship cause you to have difficulties being a fair juror? 15. Would youfind the testimony of a police officer more or less believable than that of another witness because of his or her occupation? 16. Have you served in the military? If yes, did you serve in the military police or on court martials? 17. Have you, or a close friend or relative, been the victim of or a witness to a crime? 18. [If requested] Would the defendant's race make it difficult for you to be a fair juror? 19. Do you understand the principles that a defendant in a criminal case is presumed to be innocent unless proven guilty and that the burden of proof is upon the government to prove guilt beyond a reasonable doubt before there can be a conviction? 20. Do you disagree with those principles?		11.	If you have children, what are their ages and sex and, if they are employed, what are their occupations?
Court? When? Was it a civil or criminal case? Did any of the juries reach a verdict? Have you worked as a law enforcement officer or had close friends or relatives who have? If yes, how often do you see him or her? Do you discuss his or her work? Would the relationship cause you to have difficulties being a fair juror? Would youfind the testimony of a police officer more or less believable than that of another witness because of his or her occupation? Have you served in the military? If yes, did you serve in the military police or on court martials? Have you, or a close friend or relative, been the victim of or a witness to a crime? Have you, or a close friend or relative, been the victim of or a witness to a crime? Would the defendant's race make it difficult for you to be a fair juror? Do you understand the principles that a defendant in a criminal case is presumed to be innocent unless proven guilty and that the burden of proof is upon the government to prove guilt beyond a reasonable doubt before there can be a conviction? Do you disagree with those principles?	16	12.	Please describe your educational background.
14. Have you worked as a law enforcement officer or had close friends or relatives who have? If yes, how often do you see him or her? Do you discuss his or her work? Would the relationship cause you to have difficulties being a fair juror? 15. Would youfind the testimony of a police officer more or less believable than that of another witness because of his or her occupation? 16. Have you served in the military? If yes, did you serve in the military police or on court martials? 17. Have you, or a close friend or relative, been the victim of or a witness to a crime? 18. [If requested] Would the defendant's race make it difficult for you to be a fair juror? 19. Do you understand the principles that a defendant in a criminal case is presumed to be innocent unless proven guilty and that the burden of proof is upon the government to prove guilt beyond a reasonable doubt before there can be a conviction? 20. Do you disagree with those principles?		13.	Have you ever had jury experience? Number of times? Was it in State Court or Federal Court? When? Was it a civil or criminal case? Did any of the juries reach a verdict?
15. Would you find the testimony of a police officer more or less believable than that of another witness because of his or her occupation? 16. Have you served in the military? If yes, did you serve in the military police or on court martials? 17. Have you, or a close friend or relative, been the victim of or a witness to a crime? 18. [If requested] Would the defendant's race make it difficult for you to be a fair juror? 19. Do you understand the principles that a defendant in a criminal case is presumed to be innocent unless proven guilty and that the burden of proof is upon the government to prove guilt beyond a reasonable doubt before there can be a conviction? 20. Do you disagree with those principles?		14.	Have you worked as a law enforcement officer or had close friends or relatives who have? If yes, how often do you see him or her? Do you discuss his or her work? Would the relationship cause you to have difficulties being a fair jurge?
martials? 17. Have you, or a close friend or relative, been the victim of or a witness to a crime? 18. [If requested] Would the defendant's race make it difficult for you to be a fair juror? 19. Do you understand the principles that a defendant in a criminal case is presumed to be innocent unless proven guilty and that the burden of proof is upon the government to prove guilt beyond a reasonable doubt before there can be a conviction? 20. Do you disagree with those principles?		15.	Would you find the testimony of a police officer more or less believable than that of another
17. Have you, or a close friend or relative, been the victim of or a witness to a crime? 18. [If requested] Would the defendant's race make it difficult for you to be a fair juror? 19. Do you understand the principles that a defendant in a criminal case is presumed to be innocent unless proven guilty and that the burden of proof is upon the government to prove guilt beyond a reasonable doubt before there can be a conviction? 20. Do you disagree with those principles?		16.	Have you served in the military? If yes, did you serve in the military police or on court martials?
18. [If requested] Would the defendant's race make it difficult for you to be a fair juror? 19. Do you understand the principles that a defendant in a criminal case is presumed to be innocent unless proven guilty and that the burden of proof is upon the government to prove guilt beyond a reasonable doubt before there can be a conviction? 20. Do you disagree with those principles?		17.	Have you, or a close friend or relative, been the victim of or a witness to a crime?
 Do you understand the principles that a defendant in a criminal case is presumed to be innocent unless proven guilty and that the burden of proof is upon the government to prove guilt beyond a reasonable doubt before there can be a conviction? Do you disagree with those principles? 		18.	[If requested] Would the defendant's race make it difficult for you to be a fair juror?
20. Do you disagree with those principles?	26	19.	Do you understand the principles that a defendant in a criminal case is presumed to be innocent unless proven guilty and that the burden of proof is upon the government to prove guilt beyond a reasonable doubt before there can be a conviction?
		20.	Do you disagree with those principles?

1	21.	Do you understand that this means that the defendant need not prove his innocence, need not call any witnesses, and need not testify himself?
2	22.	Would you be able to follow the Court's instruction not to draw an inference of guilt if the defendant chose not to testify?
4	23.	Can you think of any reason at all that would make it difficult for you to be a fair juror in this
5		case?
6
7
8
9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25
26
27
28
	l

1		CONFIDENTIAL
2		JUROR QUESTIONNAIRE
3	Pleas the la	e fill out this form as completely as possible and print clearly. This will assist the judge and wyers in selecting a jury and will save time for them and for you. Because copies will be for the attorneys and the judge, do not write on the back of any page. If you need more
5	room,	continue at the bottom of the page. Thank you for your cooperation.
6	1.	Your name:
7	2.	Your age:
8	3.	City in which you reside:
9	4.	If you have lived there for fewer than five years, where did you live before:
11	5.	Your place of birth:
12	6.	Do you rent or own your own home?
13	7.	Your marital status: (circle one)
14		single married separated divorced widowed
15 16	8.	What is your occupation and how long have you worked in it? (If you are retired, please describe your main occupation when you were working).
17
18 19	9.	Who is (or was) your employer?
20	10.	If you have held this job for fewer than five years, describe your previous job:
21	11.	If you are married, please list your spouse's occupation.
23 24 25	12.	If you have children, please list their ages and genders and, if they are employed, please give their occupations.
26
27
28
-

1	13.	Please describe your education background:
2		Highest grade completed:
3		College and/or vocational schools you have attended:
4
5
6
7		Major areas of study:
8	14.	Have you served in the military?
9	15.	Have you, any member of your family, or close friend ever been employed by
10		a law enforcement agency?
11	16.	Have you ever had jury experience? No. of times?
12		If yes: State/County Court Federal Court
13		When?
14		Was it a civil or criminal case?
15		Did any of the juries reach a verdict?
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25
26
27
28
	1	